SCOUTING

THE SHOPS
with Sally

● We are always talking about our rich Uncle Hezikiah, but no one ever believes us. That is why we were so glad when he appeared unexpectedly upon the scene last week.

● It threw the whole house into a terrific uproar. "Real whiskers!" ejaculated Sammy. Our heart sank almost to the floor, when we saw who was coming up the walk.

● Things happened quickly after that. With a last regretful glance at our lovely new vacuum from Charlie's (only $31.95 and runs like a charm), we thrust it hastily into the closet and flew to the front door.

● Then we were kissing Uncle Hezikiah and tucking up our hair and explaining that the lovely flowers in the front yard had come from the Daly City Nursery all at the same time.

● Meanwhile John, who had been sick in bed, heard the commotion. "Get that salesman out of here," he called down the stairs. "Can't you see I'm sick?"

● Things became a little blurred after that. The next thing we remembered clearly was Uncle Hezikiah murmuring that he was a bit hungry, and John saying in a very squelched voice that he would eat with us downstairs because he wasn't very sick. Which was true enough—for the doctor had told him that a little rest and a certain prescription carefully compounded by Edwards Drug Store would fix him up in no time. (That's what we like about Mr. Edwards—he is first and primarily a druggist, giving the most expert and careful care to all drug orders. Try sending him your next prescription).

● Anyway we were all eating lunch together then, with Uncle Hezikiah wiping his mustache and patting the children on the head and helping himself to a second piece of golden brown ham. We mentioned that we had bought it only yesterday from Robertson's Egg Store, the place where you

Birmingham Becomes 'Guinea Pig' City

Surplus food products like these oranges poured into Birmingham, Alabama, Tuesday as that city became the fourth in which the food order stamp plan for distributing excess agricultural products is being tested. With a population of 259,000 according to the 1933 count, Birmingham has about 15,000 public-aid cases eligible to participate in the plan, in which stamps (like inset) are being used. Fifty cents worth of free blue food stamps are provided each member of the family each week, to be used to secure any of the officially designated surplus food commodities at any co-operating retail store, as addition to the families' regular food purchases.

Sew and Sew's Picnic Next Tuesday

Instead of having their regular meeting this week, the Sew and Sew's club will hold a picnic Tuesday, August 8, jointly with the Crocker P. T. A.

The affair will be given at Sigmund Sterne Grove, beginning at 10 a. m. Members are invited to bring their lunch, their children and their sewing.

Pure Cellulose Curtains Look Like Rare Chintzes

Pure cellulose curtains that look like printed linens and rare chintzes are making home-decorating history for 1939. So low is their cost that an entire house can be redraped for less than $1, and when the curtains are soiled they can be thrown away and replaced for a cost equal to or less than the cost of laundering.

Looking like vellum and feeling like fine percale, these materials are soft, pliable, with permanent drapability and "hand." They are available in a wide number of patterns and designs in rich, sunfast colors. Coming completely finished and ready to hang, with matching tiebacks, the drapes are sold in three lengths.

Spills Won't Spot This Cloth!

The housekeeper who owns one of these waterproof, spotproof, luncheon cloths can laugh at such accidents as a tipped-over wine glass or gravy boat. Treated with a material which scientists call koroseal, the cloths can be cleaned merely by sponging with water or soap suds. This one is in a charming pattern of blue morning glories with natural foliage on a cream ground. Moderately priced, the cloths are smart enough for an informal dinner and also are ideal for out-of-door use during the summer.

Fastest Creature

The fastest creature that lives is a small fly that looks like a honeybee. It is a scant half-inch long and is estimated by scientists to attain a speed of 800 miles an hour. It is the cephenemyia, a species of botfly.

Civil Officers Liable

Under the Constitution, the President, Vice President and all other civil officers are liable to impeachment for "treason, bribery or other high crimes or misdemeanors" and on conviction to be removed from office.

Literary Tree

In Coole Park, Ireland boasts "its most literary tree." This growing timber shows honorable scars in the shape of signatures in the bark of William Butler Yeats, Edward Martyn, Synge, George Moore, and George Bernard Shaw.

Dutch Carillons

The carillons of Middleburg in Holland are famous not only for their beauty, but for their frequency, for the 41 bells play every seven and a half minutes, eight times an hour, or 192 times every day.

Little Niceties Make Cheerful Guest Room

Summer guests will appreciate a cheerful guest room—one that has its own style furniture and not just miscellaneous discarded pieces. Essential as the bed itself are a chest of drawers for odds and ends, a smart vanity for the feminine visitor and a bedside lamp and table.

A chaise longue and some good books and magazines will help take care of those in between moments. Most important of all, for comfort's sake, are a good mattress and a good spring.

Logs for the Apartment

There are now fireplace logs suited to the apartment dweller. They are compressed under great pressure out of sawdust and shavings so that each log is bone dry, clean, uniform in size (4 by 12½ inches), and has no splinters. There is almost no storage problem, as each log burns for four hours, and a month's supply can easily fit into the closet along with the umbrella and galoshes. These logs give off a colored flame—blue, orange, purple or green—very much like fires made from driftwood.

Dining Bay Excludes Flies

If you want to eat outdoors in warm weather, but the flies make the meal a nuisance, how about adding a bay to your living or dining room? You can sit with windows on practically three sides of you, but by screening them, banish the annoying and unsanitary little insects.

Sealing Jellies

Paraffin used for sealing jellies should be "smoking" hot, since it sterilizes as well as seals. Tilt the glass in order that the melted paraffin may form a seal around the side of the glass as well as a covering for the top.

Ice Cream at Sea

Ice cream is manufactured daily aboard United States battleships at sea, a substitute for fresh milk being employed.

World's Tallest Woman

The tallest woman in the world is believed to be Miss Elsa Droyson of Berlin, Germany. She is seven feet four inches tall.

Cooling Summer Drinks

Can you think of anything more cooling and refreshing than a frosty glass of ice cold beverage sprigged with mint and tinkling with ice cubes? Neither can I. There's something about a cold, tart-tasting drink that seems to lower the temperature several degrees.

I like to keep a variety of chilled drinks in my refrigerator to meet the demands of sultry weather; a sparkling punch to serve during mid-afternoon when everyone is wilted and weary; old-fashioned lemonade for thirsty youngsters and grown folks, too; or cool, refreshing iced tea to serve with meals, or whenever the occasion warrants.

Iced tea is a summer standby, and properly prepared it's truly delicious. Follow these simple rules for making it, if you like to serve to your family and your guests the clear, sparkling, faintly fragrant tea that's delightfully refreshing.

Iced Tea.

1. Rinse teapot with boiling water.
2. Place tea in teapot—allowing one teaspoon of tea per cup to be made.
3. Pour freshly boiling water over the tea leaves.
4. Allow tea to steep—not boil—for 3 to 5 minutes according to strength desired.
5. Cool hot tea infusion quickly by pouring it over a generous supply of chipped ice.
6. Serve at once. Lemon slices or a sprig of mint may be used as an accompaniment if desired.

Ginger Julep.

Few sprigs mint
2 lemons
¼ cup superfine powdered sugar
1 quart gingerale
Cracked ice

Place the mint leaves and the lemon rind, cut in strips, in a pitcher. With the back of a spoon, crush the leaves and the rind. Add lemon juice and sugar, and place in refrigerator for about an hour to ripen. When ready to serve, add gingerale, and pour into tall glasses filled with crushed ice.

Old-Fashioned Lemonade.

1 cup sugar
2 cups water
¼ cup lemon rind (grated)
½ cup lemon juice
1 quart cold water

Place the sugar, 2 cups water, and the lemon rind in a saucepan. Coy-

Tyrone Makes First Singing Try

Tyrone Power sings for the first time on the screen in "Rose of Washington Square," Twentieth Century-Fox production now playing at the Daly City theatre. Three of the many familiar hit songs in the picture were assigned to the young "King of the Movies" to sing together with Alice Faye in some of the gay moments of the film.

TYRONE POWER, ALICE FAYE and AL JOLSON.

The songs are "The Curse of an Aching Heart," "Rose of Washington Square" by James Hanley and Ballard Macdonald, and "The Vamp." Among other heart songs and hit songs of yesterday heard in "Rose of Washington Square" are "My Man," "Ja-Da," "April Showers," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," "Mammy" and "I'm Just Wild About Harry."

Al Jolson, the star who sings back the past everyone wants to remember, co-stars in the film.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Whispering Enemies," starring Jack Holt. Dolores Costello is the star's leading lady.

YOUR HOME AND MINE

By Jane Floyd Buck

If the American homemaker has the idea that she is the "forgotten woman," she has only to cast an eye over the list of gadgets devised for time saving and housework minimizing introduced during the July Housefurnishings Show in New York to realize that actually she is the glamour girl of the manufacturing industry.

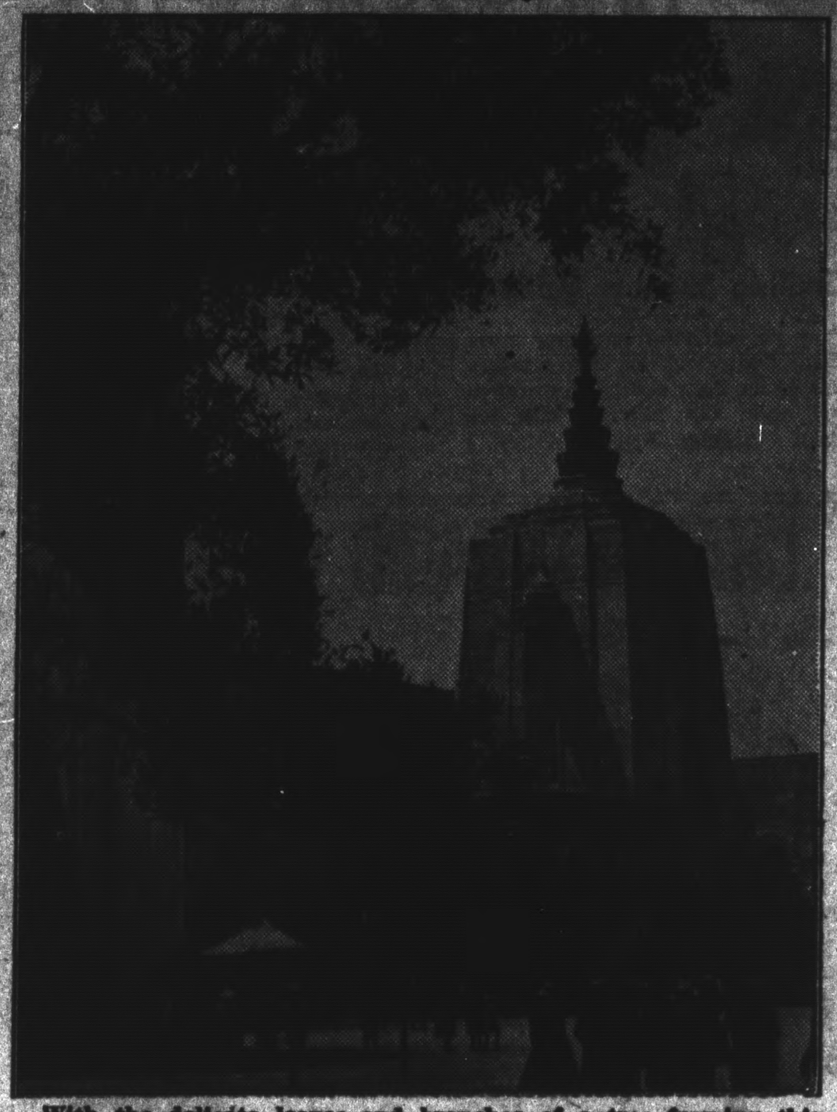
A trip through the show disclosed a decorative electric table oven which did just about everything but serve the meal after it was prepared. There was a covered broiler in which the steak or chops could be cooked to a turn right at table. And there were all manner of other related appliances, both little and big, to be plugged in—all designed to remove the onus of housework.

Even the matter of laundry work had been taken care of with smart looking table cloths which were proof against stains and spots and could be washed with a little soap and water, and window curtains which could be accorded the same treatment. The luncheon cloths were of linen, treated with a material which scientists call koroseal and which, hardly perceptible on the fabric, nevertheless makes it impervious to liquids, spotting, mildewing and dust. This material does not crack with age, its makers say, so that any article on which it is used has an unusually long and bright life.

Another smaller item also made of this koroseal-treated material was an adjustable cover for lampshades to be slipped on or off at will and designed to keep the delicate silk shades free of dust and dirt.

And speaking of lamps, another bit of magic in the field of new gadgets was the radio lamp. Equipped with a five tube receiver, the lamp is smartly styled and gives no indication, by its appearance, of radio powers.

Towering Beauty At Fair



With the delicate leaves and branches of a tree framing this mystic Tower of the East at the California World's Fair, the spot is another one where visitors to the Exposition find enchantment. Each of the many beautiful courts and fountains has its own particular charm, and together they make Treasure Island a true magic isle of romance.

Army Parades At S. F. Fair

Stationed at Camp Hunter Liggett for the duration of the California World's Fair is the Treasure Island Company and Band, a crack unit from the 30th U. S. Infantry. The precision drills, dramatic retreat ceremonies, drills to music, parades and formal military honors paid to visiting dignitaries form a colorful part of the Exposition. Here the Treasure Island company parades in front of the Federal Building and the magnificent Colonnade of States. The ceremony is a daily feature at the Fair.

Huge Rodeo Here Sunday

Thrills and chills galore are promised an anticipated throng of 70,000, this Sunday afternoon, at San Francisco's Kezar stadium, when at 2:30 p. m., Larry Sunbrock, master showman, will unloose a torrent of contests, exhibitions and acts during his Wild West Rodeo and Thrill Circus, with 1500 performers and 1000 animals participating. Sunbrock predicts that the huge spectacle will go on record as the largest outdoor show of its kind in history.

Dare-Devil Driver

Riders of the ranchlands from the Canadian border to the Rio Grande, cowboys from Pendleton, Calgary and Salinas, girl rough riders who will compete for $10,000.00 prize money in the Big Rodeo. The Wild West Cavalcade will include bronco riding, calf roping, steer bull-dogging and Wild Cow Milking Contests.

The sensational Hollywood Daredevils will perform the same stunts that they have done in numerous motion pictures, such as driving an automobile over four others, crashing solid brick walls at 70 miles an hour, the tunnel of flame, Mickey Anderson the human battering ram smashes through flaming board walls, with his head, racing elephants from Bombay, circus clowns, the sensational flying trapeze act "The Baretis," and a thousand other events will be included at Kezar stadium this Sunday afternoon, August 6.

Sauerkraut History

Sauerkraut was introduced and popularized in this country by German immigrants, and of course the name is German, but there is evidence to show that it may not have originated in Germany. There is no definite information as to when or where the idea occurred to shred cabbage and leave it to ferment in brine made from salt and its own juice. One writer traces it to Asia, showing how the Tartars first passed on a sauerkraut recipe to the Slavic peoples of eastern Europe, who in turn gave it to the ancient Germans. There is evidence also that this food has been made in Alsace and in Holland from very early times.

Advertises Walking Tours

Scotland's railways advertise and arrange walking tours known as "Out by Rail—Hike Across Country —Return by Rail." Very cheap day return tickets make the tours ideal for those whose legs are in better condition than their pocketbooks. The return need not be from the same point or by the same railway.

Scouting the Shops

always find such lovely fresh eggs. "And it only cost 27c for two big slices," piped up Sue Ann.

● So Uncle said what lovely thick cream and did we keep our own cows. We explained, no, that's the way cream always is from the Mission Creamery.

● Lunch finally ended, with Sammy asking Uncle Hezikiah if he really were worth $80,000 and explaining that in case he did happen to want a shave we had plenty of hot water because we had just bought a new hot water heater from S. N. Pfeifer.

● To our intense relief, Uncle Hezikiah hinted he would like a nap, so we led him proudly to the new guest room, knowing that since the mattress had been freshly renovated by the Daly City Mattress company, Uncle Hezikiah would enjoy a nap of real comfort.

● Outside of his door we all held a council of war how best to entertain him.

● "There's a swell rodeo at Kezar stadium August 6," said Sammy.

● "Alice Faye is playing at the Daly City theatre," added Sally.

● "We might take him over to the Smith's," said John with a perplexed frown. "They've just bought a new radio from Byrne's radio store that's really a marvel—gets all the foreign stations, too."

● "The food at the Hilltop is delicious," we suggested, "and it's always a lot of fun."

● But Uncle Hezikiah, who had overheard the entire conversation, called out and said that he had lumbago and better spend a quiet evening at home. The fortunate arrival of the curtains just then from the Beeson Cleaners saved us from making a reply. (Incidentally, if you've never sent your curtains to the Beeson Cleaners, try it. You'll be surprised how inexpensively and carefully they will do the job).

● Lunch having taught us a lot about Uncle Hezikiah's appetite, we climbed into our hat and coat, talked John out of an extra ten dollars, and departed for town, intent on food delicacies and grocery bargains.

● We found both. At Farmer's Meat company there were lamb brains, 3 for 10c, which would make a delicious variation for any menu. Spring lamb was selling for 26c a pound, and boiling beef down to 8c.

● Milo's market supplied us with such a wealth of attractive food, all priced so moderately, that we could have fed Uncle Hezikiah for days. Highlights of our order were eggplant, bell peppers, cucumbers 5 for 5c, one of the most immense avacadoes we've ever seen for 10c; filet of bluefish, 20c a pound; soda crackers, 2 pound package for 15c.

● The Castle Garden Grocery, a nice food market that has just opened here, supplied us with potatoes, 10 pounds for 12c and Monterey cheese, 24c a pound.

● Fresh fruits never looked nicer than they did at Westlake Market that day. Alberta peaches were only 10c a dozen; blackberries, 5c a pound. We also bought a large bottle of catsup for only 10c.

● Everyone we met had been telling us about the salad combination at the Daly City Cut Rate Market, so we went over there to investigate. It really is marvelous. Cut Rate is also featuring Gerber's baby foods, 3 for 20c, this week, and an outstanding special on apples and potatoes.

● Knowing how fond Uncle Hezikiah was of sweets, we went to the Geneva Bakery to get him a real treat. We bought both a luscious French Cream pie and a huge frosted cake.

● Before we went home we stopped at Lucca's to take advantage of a wonderful soap sale they are having this week. We saved enough on soap supplies to buy a couple of fryers (27c a pound) and a 2-lb. can of coffee, 51c.

● Speeding happily toward home and our rich uncle, we were amazed to see John, fully clothed, in at Jinx, morosely consuming one of their nice thick milk shakes. He would scarcely speak to us at first and it was only when we anxiously inquired the whereabouts of Uncle Hezikiah that John turned a baleful eye upon us.

● We think it best to draw the curtain here. After all, the painful facts remain the same. It seems that John had obligingly cashed a fifty-dollar check for Uncle Hezikiah, and Uncle Hezikiah had last been seen on a fast out-going freight train.

Backstage at Cavalcade

Behind the towering scenes at "Cavalcade of The Golden West," at the California World's Fair, are many amazing contrasts of old and new, as moderns wander among the props used to portray 400 years of Western history. Here Joyce Lyford, one of the beauties among the hundreds of actors and actresses, pets a yoke of oxen, of which she has become fond during their joint participation in the thrilling show.

Tombstone Copies

A Vermont woman has written to St. John, N. B., asking for "certified copies of tombstones" in the Old Loyalist burying ground there. She apparently meant copies of the epitaphs on memorials to certain ancestors.

Model Fire Engines

During his chairmanship of the London county council fire brigade committee Edward Cruse has been given 166 model fire engines.

er and cook for 5 minutes. Add lemon juice and cold water. Chill thoroughly, and garnish with a sprig of mint or a marshmallow in each glass.

Spiced Syrup.

2 cups granulated sugar
1 cup water
Pinch salt
3 teaspoons whole cloves
6 inches stick cinnamon

Bring sugar, water, and salt to the boiling point and boil one minute. Remove from fire and add spices. Cover and cool. Strain before using.

Frosted Grape Juice Ade.
(Serves 6)

4 cups grape juice
Juice of 3 oranges
Juice of 1 lemon
1 pint water
¼ cup sugar
Crushed ice

Combine the fruit juices and water. Add sugar. Dip the rims of tall beverage glasses in lime juice, then in confectioners' sugar to make a frosted edge. Allow to dry. Half fill glasses with crushed ice, and pour in the beverage.

Iced Coffee.

Prepare hot coffee in the usual manner making it a little stronger to allow for dilution. Then pour over crushed ice or tea cubes in tall glasses, and serve at once.

Mocha Freeze.

Pour chilled coffee into tall glasses. Add a generous spoonful of vanilla ice cream to each glass and top with whipped cream.

Bowling Green Punch.
(Serves 8-10)

3 cups orange pekoe tea infusion
Ice
1½ cups spiced syrup
½ cup lemon juice
¼ cup orange juice
1 pint gingerale

Pour warm or hot tea over ice. Add lemon and orange juice and spiced syrup and mix thoroughly. Add gingerale just before serving.

KEEP COOL WITH REFRIGERATOR MEALS
See Recipes Below.

Refrigerator Meals

It's a smart stunt to get meal preparation out of the way in the cool of the morning. Knowing that dinner's ready and practically waiting to be served helps you to look and feel cool, calm and collected, and it leaves you free for "vacationing" during the hot hours of the day.

Here's a menu that can be prepared in the morning, almost down to the last sprig of parsley, so that it will be ready to serve at the appointed dinner hour with only a little additional work.

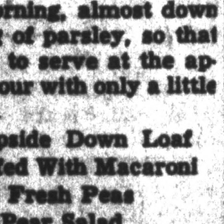
Pineapple Upside Down Loaf
Tomatoes Stuffed With Macaroni
Buttered Fresh Peas
Minted Pear Salad
Hot Biscuits
Strawberry Fluff

Biscuits.
(Makes 12-14 Biscuits).

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup shortening
¾ cup milk

Sift dry ingredients together and cut in shortening. Add liquid slowly. Turn dough onto lightly floured board, pat to ½-inch thickness, and cut in rounds. Place on greased cookie sheet. Brush biscuits with melted butter and store in refrigerator until 20 minutes before dinner. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees) for 15-20 minutes.

Pineapple Upside Down Ham Loaf
Sliced pineapple
Whole cloves
1½ pounds ham (ground)
½ pound veal (ground)
1 green pepper (minced) ½ cup
1 cup rice (cooked)
2 tablespoons onion (minced)
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg (beaten)
½ cup chili sauce or catsup
½ cup water



Dot several slices of pineapple with whole cloves. Arrange in the bottom of a loaf pan.

Combine meat, green pepper, rice, onion and seasonings. Add egg, chili sauce (or catsup) and water. Shape into loaf, and bake at 375 degrees for one hour. Turn out onto platter. Serve hot or cold.

Buttered Fresh Peas.

Simply place the shelled peas in a saucepan, partially filled with water. Set in refrigerator, then just before dinner, cook in this same water. For variety, sprinkle finely chopped garden mint over peas before serving.

Tomatoes Stuffed With Macaroni.

Remove the centers from the desired number of tomatoes and fill with cooked and seasoned macaroni, topping with slices of cheese, or better yet, if the refrigerator divulges some freshly kept, left-over macaroni and cheese, this may be used instead, with a buttered crumb topping. Chill until dinner time, then bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for about 20 minutes.

Minted Pear Salad.

1 package mint-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup cold water
¼ teaspoon salt
5 or 6 pear halves (canned)
Lettuce
Salad dressing.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water, add cold water and salt. Let stand in refrigerator until cool. Dip pear halves in cold gelatin mixture and arrange in ring mold. Place in refrigerator until set, and fill the mold with the cooled gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. Serve on large platter with a small bowl of salad dressing and lettuce for garnish.

Strawberry Fluff.

And for dessert, combine whipped cream, sliced strawberries and marshmallows, cut in quarters. Place in sherbets and chill for several hours or overnight.

French Service Decoration

The Medaille Militaire, France's premier decoration for distinguished service in action, commands so much respect for its owner that even in military prison unusual favors are granted to him, declares Collier's. As another honor, the medal is fastened to the front of his cell door and a guard is stationed there to watch it.

President's Assassination

President McKinley was assassinated by an anarchist, Leon Czolgosz, who shot him twice with a pistol hidden in a handkerchief at the Pan-American exposition in Buffalo in 1901.

Export Figures

The United States is now exporting more than 300 times as much corn and 3,000 times as much wheat as it is importing, the Agricultural Adjustment administration reports.

Bookman's Paradise

The bookman's paradise is Leipzig, Germany, where there are over a thousand publishers and shops devoted to the trade, and where books have been the chief manufacture for 200 years.

Wordsworthshire

The English lake district is the wildest, grandest excursion region of England, a region of 35 square miles, which because of its association with the poet, is sometimes called Wordsworthshire.

Switzerland

Switzerland is a confederation of 22 cantons which are joined under a federal constitution, with large power of local control retained by each canton.

Arriving in Ireland

An Irishman recently found fault with Stevenson's famous line to the effect that "it is better to travel hopefully than to arrive." He says that to arrive in Ireland is better than to travel hopefully, and quoted this couplet: "There's no land anywhere that men love every bit, Except old Ireland and the blue sky over it."

English Sparrow

The common (English) sparrow is the most numerous bird in England, both in town and country.

Phonograph Market

A new field and market has been opened at Bendigo, Australia, for the phonograph trade. Some boys, unable to induce a snake to come out of its hiding place, brought a portable phonograph and played records until the snake finally emerged and was killed.

Heat Radiation

The earth loses heat rapidly by radiation. In the deserts, where the nights are almost always clear, radiation is very great and the result is rapid cooling at night.

Feed Crops

Agriculture officials estimate that in 1915 it required 96,000,000 acres of farm crops to feed horses and mules in the United States, but in 1936 only 54,000,000 acres were required. Pasture requirements dropped from 90,000,000 acres to 55,000,000.

Official Publications

The library of the League of Nations contains 180,000 volumes including one of the most complete collections in Europe of official publications from all countries of the world.

Playful Shark

Lelia Steppe, blond American girl, took a swim in the Taragona park aquarium pool at Sydney, Australia, in which a 10-foot gray nurse shark was swimming. She declared the shark seemed rather sluggish and that she was confident if it had made a rush for her she could have beaten it to the side of the pool.

Repairs Lag

Recent surveys in Wisconsin, Kansas, Georgia and Illinois indicate farm building repairs are lagging in comparison with former years.
